HANDICAP TO WATER LADY

JAMES ARTHUR'S GOOD FILLY WINS FEATURE RACE AT PALMETTO PARK.

Favorites Make Poor Showing and Layers of Odds Have a Profitable Day-Joe Finn Accounts For Selling Handicap.

Charleston, S. C., December 7.—Favorites were bowled over this afternoon at Palmetto Park with monolonous regalarity and the layers had an extremely profitable session. Several of the winners found good support from their immediate connections. This was particularly true in the case of Broomsedge in the second and Joe Finn in the third. The sport was interesting and wholesome. Some of the dashes engaged the better class of horses here. Secretary Natuanson having provided a couple of haudicaps. In the six furlongs handicap, Water Lady was returned the winner over Undaunted with the favorite, Harry Shaw, third. The winner ran to her best form and had a commanding margin over the others at the finish. In the mile handicap, under selling conditions, Joe Finn made a show of his opposition and won with ridiculous ease over Nash and Chartier. The favorite of the race, Good Day, was a distant trailer all the way and showed a decided deficiency in speed.

Eleven two-year-old maidens opened the day's proceedings and all came in for more or less singport. The winner turned up in Voluspa. T. M. Green was regarded best in the second race, but poor handling brought about his defeat by Broomsedge. Col. Holloway was supported with rare confidence for the fifth race, but when it came to the running he was always a distant trailer after suffering interference on the first turn when Dreyer steered Patty Regan sharply across the others and sound Yellow Eyes.

After the betting had proceeded for some time interpretations of the second research and the second research of the day's proceeding the first turn when the first turn when the second research as the second research of the second researc steered Patty Regan sharply across the others and caused a bad jam. The advantage that Patty Regan secured enabled him to win handily over Gallant Boy and Yellow Eyes.

After the betting had proceeded for some time Cartyhunk, one of the carded starters in the sixth race, unseated his rider in his preliminary warmup and continued to circle the course nine times before he could be caught. His runaway resulted in his withdrawal and the making of a new book on the race. Chas. F. Grainger furnished a surprise by winning in easy fashion over Beau Pere, with the lavoirie, Rodondo, third. Hugh McCarren tried to bring off a coup in this race with Jacob Bunn, but the horse retired in the stretch as if a trifle short.

Jockey G. Byrne left today for New York, where he is to undergo an operation.

Jockey Dreyer was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding in the fifth race.

C. R. Ellison, who has been confined to his room for the past few days with a severe attack of lumbago, was again at the course today.

Hugh Penny has taken charge the of W. R. Mizell horses and will act as trainer of that establishment, succeeding John Naylor.

Archle Ziamer purchared 'neon from Al Hamel. Zimmer brought the borse south a couple of years ago and, after disposing of him to Hamel, Ancon changed hands several times, finally developing into one of the best sprinters here.

J. S. Ownbey was an arrival today. He came from Chattanooga, where he went to attend the wedding of his sister.

GIVES ASSURANCES TO HORSEMEN.

Judge Murphy Makes Formal Statement Concerning Proposed Meeting at New Orleans.

The program book for the first part of the forty-day meeting of the Bushness Men's Racing Association at the Fair Grounds track, New Orleans, January 1-February 17, has been distributed among horsemen throughout the country. It covers the period of racing to take place between January 1 and 9, and shows a preponderance of $400 purses, with $300 as the minimum purse value. It is announced that the racing at the Fair Grounds will be carried on under Jockey Club rules except where local usage prevails.

The book is prefaced by the following statement to horsemen signed by Joseph A. Murphy, manager and presiding judge of the meeting:

"The Business Men's Racing Association of New Orleans is made up of the leading merchants of the city.

"They have invited me to aid them in the revival of racing here and I have accepted the invitation and have signed a five years' contract, to manage the plant and act as presiding judge. I have associated with me A. B. Dade as starter and Joseph McLennan as racing secretary. The other officials will be chosen from local men with J. B. Campbell as clerk of the scales.

"The association has pledged itself to place $50,000 in one of the local banks to insure the meeting and lorsemen need have no fear that every obligation will not be met.

"I have inspected the Fair Grounds and they are in as good condition as when racing closed here. A force of men are at work on the track and stablets, and horsemen may ship at any time.

"As to the betfing, I will say that there is no law in Louisiana to prohibit betting on horse races and this feature will adjust itself.

"We have a united press for clean racing. I heed not dweil on the tremendous advantage to the breeders and owners to accrue from the revival of racing here, and I ask your hearty aid not only in making the meeting a success, but in seeing that the racing is kept absolutely clean.

"On January I I shall present to the Legislature of Missouri a bill to revive racing at St. Louis, I think I will succeed. With St. Louis and New Orleans

FORMING SOCIAL CLUB AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., December 7.—Racing with a big social side to it is now a certainty for New Orleans. The Business Men's Racing Association has made arrangements with William Campbell to act as secretary of the club and he is getting his various committees together and will be out with his invitations to join the club before the end of the week. With Jack Campbell in the stand, William as secretary of the club and T. C. Campbell as general impressario, the orchestra will be able to play in perfect harmony the "Campbells Are-Coming."

ENGLAND'S BEST BLOOD IN LIVINGSTON YEARLINGS

Young Thoroughbreds, Recently Imported Into This Country by Chicagoan, Bred in the Purple --- An Expert Review of Some of Their Pedigrees and Connections

[Editor's Note—Readers of Daily Racing Form are introduced in the subjoined letter to Dr. Maurice M. Leach, of Lexington, Ky., than whom there probably is no better informed man in all America on the subject of the blood lines of English thoroughbreds. Dr. Leach is a veterinarian who has practiced his profession in England and Australia, as well as in this country, and he writes with an intimate knowledge of his subject that is at once interesting and instructive.]

lession in England and Australia, as well as in this chis subject that is at once interesting and instructive. Lexington, Ky., December 7.—Recently I went over the pedigrees of the twenty head of Mr. Jefferson Livingston's imported yearlings, which were purchased for him by Phil. T. Chinn in the United Kingdom hast summer.

The Livingston yearlings are now quartered at Louisville, in the charge of trainer Herman Brandt, and if some first class racing material is not developed out of this lot I shall badly miss my guess. Quite a number of them are by England's most fashionable sires out of mares from the best producing families.

Mr. Livingston is, of course, a comparatively newcomer in the game, but I must say he and his advisers have acted with any amount of discretion in the selection of this team of English-bred yearlings. A few of them, at least, should in time develop into first class stallions, of which we have just now only too few and I sincerely hope no one will ever attempt to induce Mr. Livingston to unsex any of the better bred ones. Geldings are both popular and reliable racing tools, but there are some colts in this lot which should never be scarred by the veterinarian's scalpel.

I hold no brief for Mr. Livingston, and my only excuse for writing of his colts is that I see vast possibilities ahead, when the time comes to retire them to the stud, where some of them are certain to meet big expectations and do much towards the improvement of American blood stock.

To lead off I shall take the bay colt by Polymelus out of Lacroma, by St. Simonnimi. Polymelus out of Lacroma by St. Simonnimi. Polymelus out of Lacroma we know that Polymenus stanes at the lead of the English winning stallion list this season, and is the sire of Maiden Eriegh, Polkeris, Pommern, a splendid two-year-old winner, and of Black Jester, which carried off the St. Leger in record time this year.

Polymelus is by the champion Anglo-Argentinina sire, Cyliene, the only stallion to get four winners of the Derby since the days of Waxy and Sir Peter. Cyliene was a smasher as a race horse, the best of his year, and is by Bend Or's son' Bonn Vista, out of Arcadia, by Isonomy, and stallions of the Bend Or persuasion have invariably moles well in this country. Maid Mariau, Folymelus did in this country. Maid Mariau, Folymelus did in this country. Maid Mariau, Holymelus did in this country. Maid Mariau, Holymelus did in the sense of three betty winners, and also the next dam is Quixer, dam of those wonderful sisters, Memori and La Fleche, by Toxaphilite, Indeed, Polymelus is possessed of a splendid pedigree, built just right to nick well with a mare of St. Simon descent, as is Lacrona, a daughter of St. Simon descent, as is Lacrona, a daughter of St. Simon of escent, as is Lacrona, a daughter of St. Simon out of Mimi, an Oaks winner by the unbeaten Barcalidne.

Lavello, the next dam, is by the Derby winner. Ladas, by Hampton, thus returning to Polymelus this popular strain, just in the right place, in the center of the pedigree. Caserta, the third dam, is a producing daughter of Mr. Houldsworth's mighty racer, Springfield, which has sired the dams of Sundridge and Colin, and Caserta is a sister to Ponza, dam of Postiano, the only-horse which ever got four winners of the Melbourne Cup. Next in order comes grand old Napoli, dam of Raveno, Orvieto and Neapolls, one of the first stallions purchased for the Argentine, where he made an enviable reputation for himseli as a sire.

The late Mr. J. B. Haggin's imported Rapa'lo was another of Napoli's sons and I doubt if the master of Elmendorf ever imported a better horse. Napoli was by that prince of broodmare sizes, Mac a bright future, both as a race horse and a sire, can be confidently anticipated.

There is much to commend in the breeding of the hay son of St. Amant won the Derby in a tempest. Thrush. St. Amant won the Derby in a tempest. Thrush. St. Amant won the Derby in a tempest. Thrush. St. Amant won the Derby in a tempest. Amant with the sired in t

Judged, however, on their ultimate value as stalous. I think I have picked out the cream, and ould place them in the following order of merit:
1-Polymelus—Lacroma.
2-Dark Ronald—Sunkiss.
3-Troutbeck—St. Natalia.
4-White Eagle—Cannera.
5-St. Amant—Speckle Breast.
6-Cicero—Fleurette II.

6—Cicero—Fleurette II.

In future days it will be interesting to see how all this works out. At any rate, Herman Brandt has some first class timber to work on, which has been shipped across just at the right time to get the best result, plenty of time being given for these colts to become thoroughly acclimatized before the racing season opens up again mext spring, M. GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington Ky., December 7.—W. T. Croswaithe today bought from James A. Forsythe the two-year-old bay colt Tetan, by Dorante—Bettie Gray. Will Perkins will train him.

Price McKinney of Cleveland, owner of the Wickliffe Stud, is here to inspect his horses, which are in charge of Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield at Kingston Farm.

Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, after a brief visit to his mother and sisters here, departed tonight for New York.

ROUGH RIDING AT JUAREZ

JUDGE PRICE FINDS IT NECESSARY TO DIS-CIPLINE TWO JOCKEYS.

Track Dries Out on Top, but Is Still Wet Underneath-Horses at Good Odds Among Today's Winners.

El Paso, Tex., December 7.—Today's attendance at Juarez came up to expectations. The track was much improved in the past twenty-four hours, being quite dry on the surface, although still damp underneath.

underneath.

Big fields faced starter Cassidy in two of the day's races and there was considerable rough riding in the opening dash, in which Little Jane, the favorite, was thrown into the fence shortly after they passed the half mile post with such force that jockey Metcalf had his foot badly bruised. It will probably be a week or more before this rider will be able to accept mounts. Little Jane escaped with a few scratches.

There was more rough riding during the afternoon and Presiding Steward Price meted out punishment to some of the offenders. Only two favorites managed to score, long shots accounting for several roots.

aged to score, long shots accounting for several races.

Ben's Brother was the victm of rough riding in the fourth, being nearly knocked down as they turned into the stretch. The finish found line; and Carrie Orme coming home noses apart, with Carrie Orme bearing over against Inez from the paddock entrance to the finish. Jockey Hartwell was suspended for five days for this offense and jockey Carroll was suspended for five days for this offense and jockey Carroll was suspended for the same number of days by the stewards for rough riding in the fourth race.

Recent arrivals include J. T. Strite, from Hot Springs, with two horses and three yearlings from the Newman farm at Sweetwater. The latter are good-looking individuals, and one of them in particular which caught the fancy of the horsemen is the brother to that fine sprinter, Gloser, by Abe Frank—Burnie Bunton. Closer probably would have been one of the greatest racers ever sent out of Texas had he not been troubled with his feet practically from the start of his career, being a remarkably fine turned thoroughbred and possessing a dazzling turn of speed. Horsemen are looking forward to the career of this brother with more than ordinary interest.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

It is officially announced at Berlin that the Germans occupied Lodz, in Russian Poland, on Sunday. Lodz is the second largest city of Russian Poland and is seventy-five miles southwest of Warssaw, the Polish capital. Its population is 500,000. The Russians defending it are said to have beaten a retreat with severe losses. It is stated that the Russians' losses are being increased as the Germans pursue, and that many guis and thousands of prisoners were taken by the Germans. The German official announcement is given further support by delayed dispatches from Petrograd to the London Daily Telegraph. The correspondent states that on Friday, the date the dispatches were filed, the situation at Lodz was serious. 'For the last three days,' says one of these dispatches, 'the Germans in Russian Poland around Lodz lave been strenuously aggressive. The German wedge, which already has been driven into Russian Poland, is being pushed with tremendous reinforcements. The last lowicz. This gives the Germans control of all the railroads in this triangle. They are using the railroads to pour in an unceasing stream of fresh troops and engines of war. The enemy's plan around Lodz involves the cutting of some of Warsaw's most important lines of communication. The German's plan to hold this wedge all winter by inaugurating an elaborate trench warfare.'' Other news from the castern front indicates that the Germans have commenced another attempt to envelope the Russians on both lanks. This is indicated by the fact that there is fighting near flow to the north of Lodz and at Piotrkow to the south. Both of these places are in advance of the positions at which the Germans previously have been reported in their second invasion of Poland and, like, Lodz, they are situated on the main roads to the Polish capital.

The French war office gave out an official communication as follows: ''In the region of Armentices and of and considerable ammunition."

The Russian attempt to flank the Germans on their left wing following their capture of Lodz has been folled, London reports. This end of the line has advanced twenty-five miles to within forty miles of the capital of Poland. The line of Field Marshal von Hindenburg now presents a solid sevento a point west of Pietrkow on the Vistula, on the north to a point west of Pietrkow on the south.

Schoolboy, a yearling son of Dartworth and Schoolmarm, bred at East View Farm near Yonkers, N. Benson of the Butler stable since the Butler string went into winter quarters. Superintendent Frank Clarke of the Sheepshead Bay track, who was among those who timed the trial, said that in his long career as track superintendent he had only once before seen a yearling show such speed in a trial. That one was Strike Out, a colt that early in his year gave promise of being a real champion, but afterwards failed to race up to that early promise. At the same time that Schoolboy worked so well, Mr. Butler's yearing filly by Disguise—Olga Nethersole did a quarter in :23 impressively. schoolmarm, bred at East View Farm near Yonkers, X, Y, by James Butler, is credited with having capital.
